

Asset Monitoring Limited

Water, Wastewater, Stormwater Monitoring Services

Asset Monitoring Limited is a service provider for the installation of both short term and permanent systems for the comprehensive monitoring of Water, Wastewater and Stormwater reticulation systems.

AML offer a wide range of services for monitoring reticulation systems to assist consultants with the provision of data for the live calibration or building of reticulation models.

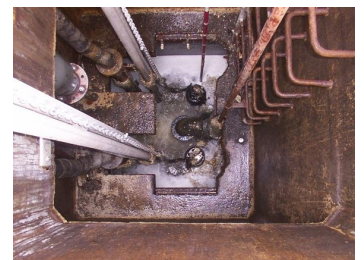

Water

- Hydrant pressure monitoring
- Water meter flow monitoring
- Hydrant fire flow surveys
- Calibration of "In Line" flow meters
- Velocity profiling of mains and monitoring

Wastewater and Stormwater

- Open channel flow monitoring
- Pump Station monitoring
- Rain Gauge installations and maintenance
- Site Investigations and recommendations
- Inflow and Infiltration investigations
- Combined sewer / stormwater overflow investigation
- Installation of short term and long term monitoring systems
- On site calibration or auditing of long or short term flow monitors
- Manhole assets data collection
- System smoke testing and inspections
- Installation and operation of automatic sampling units
- Installation of event notification systems
- Desk top auditing and data evaluation

Also AML are:
New Zealand Agents for MACE Equipment

Contact Details:
Field Office Ph (09) 414 4907 Fax (09) 414 4908
Nigel Thompson 027 232 4879
Connie Pervan 027 448 2358

PO BOX 300 715
Albany 0752
Auckland

